

Personal Plan Pays.....Big Time.

In 1972, when Harvard University reviewed the wealth of the class of 1952, they found that the 3% of people who worked to an individual personal plan had more personal wealth than the other 97% combined.

In Australia, about 1% of people have an individual plan. I'd bet you that people like Dick Smith and Richard Branson have personal plans.

Regards, Reg Templer
Business Guerrillas